

Christopher Ennis MSc FRICS FCI Arb

Following early experience gained in building trades, Chris trained and qualified as a Chartered Quantity Surveyor in 1981, has been a Director in a property development and architectural consultancy, was Managing Director of Northcrofts Management Services Ltd., and joined Davis Langdon LLP as a Partner in 2007, and became a Director following merger with AECOM. Since November 2012 he has been a founder-Director of Time | Quantum Expert Forensics Limited, a small practice specialising in construction dispute resolution consultancy (<http://tqef.uk.com/index.html>).

With over 30 years' experience in the Construction Industry, Chris specialises in expert witness work in the area of quantum analysis, and as Adjudicator, Mediator and Arbitrator, and he has worked on some very large and well-known disputes.

He is an experienced Adjudicator accredited by the RICS, CI Arb, TeCSA, CEDR and CPA panels, and he is frequently appointed following agreement between party representatives. He has been Named Adjudicator in several large construction contracts and in an Agreement for Lease, and named Panel Expert for adjudication in several BSF/PPP schools projects in the UK and Ireland.

He has acted as Adjudicator or Mediator in connection with more than 100 construction contract disputes. He has also been a member of a Dispute Adjudication Board for a petrochemical contract.

A recent client adjudication representative congratulated Chris for "...providing such clear reasons for your Decision."
