

CURRICULUM VITAE

NAME Philip Julian Harris MA Cantab FCI Arb

EDUCATED: 1971 – 1976 King Edward VI School, Edgbaston, Birmingham
1977 – 1980 Peterhouse, Cambridge

CAREER PATH: Joined Neil F. Jones & Co. in 1988 after active recruitment, becoming a partner in 1990.

In 1995, joined Merricks as a partner in Birmingham specialising in construction and insurance law.

From December 2001, Partner and Head of Construction at Wright Hassall.

PUBLICATIONS: Co-author of a book on Professional Negligence.

Contributed to a booklet on set-off in the construction industry and to a Lloyds practical guide on professional negligence and insurance law.

LECTURES: For, inter alia, the CI Arb, RICS, RIBA, the Institution of Structural Engineers, the CIOB, the Engineering Employers Federation and the CITB

AREAS OF SPECIALISATION Construction and engineering law. International construction and engineering and infrastructure disputes. Professional indemnity for architects, engineers and surveyors and accountants.

QUALIFICATIONS BA Honours and MA Cantab; FCI Arb; Solicitor with Rights of Audience in the High Court (Civil)

ADJUDICATION: On the adjudication panels for the CIOB and Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, TeCSA and CIC.

Philip trained adjudicators for the RIBA Panel. He has adjudicated over 100 matters as Adjudicator, ranging from a small private dispute over £11,000 to a major pipeline dispute on a pipeline spanning two thirds of the UK.. He has adjudicated a large number of disputes under professional appointments.

MEDIATION: CEDR accredited mediator. Law Society Panel mediator (civil) and panel member of Association of Midlands Mediators, Talk Mediation and Law Works (pro Bono).

Appointed several times under the Birmingham Civil Justice Centre Mediation Scheme, currently setting up a mediation scheme for the Coventry & Warwickshire Chamber of Commerce.

Has mediated approximately 80 mediations. All but four have settled by mediation.

ARBITRATION Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and Chartered Arbitrator on the panel of that Institute.

Law Society List Arbitrator.

Institute of Chartered Accountants Panel Arbitrator.

Surveyors' Scheme Panel Member for CI Arb.

References and a list of reported cases can be provided on request.