

Robert Hogarth

Partner

Head of RPC's Construction and Projects team

Editor of "Insurance Law for the Construction Industry" published by OUP.

I have been involved with construction disputes for over 40 years for a diverse range of clients including insurers, consultants, employers and contractors.

My construction experience is very wide across the fields of building and infrastructure, including liability for defects and delay.

I have 20 years' experience of PFI contracts and have been involved in a large number of disputes involving variously (and sometimes simultaneously) employer, supply chain and joint venture partners.

Qualifications

- Oxford BA Jurisprudence 1975
- Qualified as a solicitor in 1978 with Reynolds Porter Chamberlain, became a partner in November 1979
- Regional Vice Chair of Terralex Construction Industry and Mining Practice Group for EMEA REGION
- TeCSA accredited Adjudicator since 1997

robert.hogarth@rpc.co.uk
D +44 20 3060 6437
M +44 7802 956282

